The love of risk !

« Random » is a show that exposes theatrical situations to their limits, something falling into total absurdity or eccentricity, with a lot a naturalness.

With this first show, Joel Marti and Pablo Molina play lines bordering the danger, seek a freshness scenic with an almost cruel sincerity.

Balance, contorsion, tightrope, dance, theater and dialogues disturbing for a story hardly credible, narrated by this duo to the personality « borderline », ready for anything.

They like what they do, and guess what ? It shows !
